Chas. Lodge left for Williamsport last week.

Mrs. Sarah E. Barton and grand-daughter, Lida, spent one afternoon last week with Josahed Lodge.

It is easy to relieve a cough or cure a cold after a copious evacuation of the bowels.

Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar is the Original Laxative Cough Syrup. It acts on the bowels—expels all cold from the system, and cures coughs by removing the cause.

CRIO.

John Knauff, of Foltz, was over to see his brother Daniel last Sunday.

Will Kuhn and wife, John Seiders, father, and wife were at George Seiders' last Sunday.

Mrs. Riblet and son Leslie, of Johnstown, are visiting the former's sister Mrs. John Carbaugh at Clio.

The farmers have commenced seeding and cutting corn.

HUSTONTOWN.

While on his way home from the soldiers' reunion Friday night Bert Sipes had a wreck, but no serious accident happened.

Lab Henry spent Saturday night and Sunday with George Sipes and wife.

Scott Denisar came home from Altoona last week, sick, but is better now.

One of our ladies went out driving last week, and could not get her horse turned. She sang It is Red, White and Blue, she got it turned too.

A very pleasant social was held at the home of Geo. Sipe and wife last Saturday evening. It was the girls who ate ice cream out of the sauce dish and table spoon this time, in place of the boys.

Feet Swollen to Immense Size.

"I had kidney trouble so bad that I could not work," says J. J. Cox, of Valley View, Ky., "my feet were swollen to immense size and I was confined to my bed and physicians were unable to give me any relief. My doctor finally prescribed Foley's Kidney Cure which made a well man of me." Sold by all dealers.

DOTT.

A very pleasant social was held last Friday evening at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Wilson. Just as Mr. Wilson was preparing to retire, a party of about fifty friends entered his home each with something good to eat.

Vocal and instrumental music was indulged in till about ten o'clock, when refreshments consisting of cake, ice-cream, peaches, etc., were served. The tables were beautifully trimmed with ferns and flowers.

Among those present were J. C. Fisher and wife, George Wilson and wife, Oliver Hill and wife, Albert Bevans and wife, Alfred Mellot, wife and two children, D. Garland and family, Samuel Winters, wife and two children, Mrs. Bishop, Mrs. Mary C. Winter, Alice Wilson, Annie Bevans, Cora and Viola Kershner, Carrie Hill, Esther, Cora, and Nora Bevans, Carrie Kershner, Wm. Yonker, Edward Goodman, Alfred Bernhard of Warfordsburg, John Wheeler of Hancock, Archie Fisher, Maple Winter, Oscar Bevans, Gayle Fisher, Guy Bevans, Sherman Barnhardt, Manuel Feigley, Otis Mellott, Ralph Truax, Walter Feigley, Howard Peck, Harvey Hill, Raymond Garland, and Victor Bevans.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson appreciated the kindness of their many friends and very cordially invite all to return. They received some handsome presents.

Cured Hemorrhages of the Lungs.

"Several years since my lungs were so badly affected that I had many hemorrhages," writes A. M. Ake, of Wood Ind., "I took treatment with several physicians without any benefit. I then started to take Foley's Honey and Tar and my lungs are now as sound as a bullet. I recommend it in advanced stages of lung trouble." Sold by all dealers.

SPOOK HOLLOW.

The question now is, Were you at the Reunion, and did you see the fights? and then the next is, if that one fellow hadn't been so stout the other fellow would have licked him.

Preaching at Cedar Grove, by Rev. Hendershot on the 4th Sunday at 10 a. m.

Ball game next Saturday afternoon at Needmore.

Rowe Mellott of Big Cove Tannery, and two lumber inspectors spent a couple of days in our community inspecting lumber.

Quite a number of our folks gathered at the home of John S. Truax and wife on Saturday to spend the evening with Ralph. They were out in the yard having a good time, when they were invited to the dining room where a large table heavily laden, awaited them. After doing ample justice to the good things on the table, they returned to the yard and parlor where they indulged in various games until a late hour.

Katie Smith and Thomas K. Downs were visiting on Pleasant Ridge Sunday.

H. L. Garland and wife passed through our community Sunday.

Letter to Trout's Drug Co., McConnellsburg, Pa.

Dear Madam: We suspect you'd like the tale, how a woman beat two hardware dealers in Girard, Pa.

We tried our best to get those men to sell Devco lead and zinc in that bright town, and failed. Reluctantly took Mrs. E. R. Bowman, druggist.

They said they couldn't sell paint for more than $1.25 a gallon. Mrs. Bowman can. She has sold about all the paint, that has been sold there since.

She knew Devco: had sold our artists' materials. Had some sense and force, besides; she easily learned that cheap is dear in paint, and told the people.

Mr. Burt Young bought a gallon Devco for rooms that had always taken a gallon of other paint; had half left.

Mr. E. H. Hiler, jeweler, painted Devco, and says it goes further—no particulars.

Mr. John Hanna, grocer, thought it expensive before he bought it; brought back nearly half of his paint, and said it was the cheapest job he ever had.

Mrs. Bowman reports universal satisfaction. So much for a cheap-paint town with a bright woman in it.

Yours truly F. W. DEVCO & Co., New York.

CLEAR RIDGE.

Minnie Grove accompanied her sister Mrs. Clyde Hockenberry to her new home in Pitcairn, and expects to visit her for a few weeks.

Goldie Fields spent Sunday with her Grandmother Fields.

Henry Huston and family spent Sunday with the Huston children here.

James H. Fields has a very sick horse. He has lost two horses this summer.

Jessie Henry is visiting her brother Harry at Dudley.

Duff Sipes of McConnellsburg, was the guest of the family of J. H. Fields Saturday and Sunday.

Louie Kerlin is visiting her sister Mrs. Bert Henry in the Cove.

Mrs. Hannah Brown, who has been in impaired health for quite awhile, was able to come over to spend a few days with her daughter Mrs. Jacob Winegardner.

Most of our people attended the Reunion on Friday and the picnic at Dublin Mills on Saturday.

Daniel Henry lost a horse one day last week by its getting one of its legs broken.

Mrs. Jacob Winegardner and her brother Charles Brown attended the funeral of their cousin, Charles Madden and son, which took place on Saturday at Three Springs.

HUSTONTOWN.

Newton Deforest was visiting his friend Dr. A. K. Davis a few days last week. Mr. Deforest left this county twenty years ago. He is now working for the Government and is stationed at Minneapolis.

Mrs. Keller and son Harry whose illness was noted in last week's News, are improving.

The teachers of Taylor township will hold their district local institute Saturday, September 16th, at which time questions pertaining to school work will be discussed. All friends of education are invited. No teacher can afford to miss these meetings.

Harry E. Huston, Saltillo's hustling merchant, called on Dr. Davis Sunday evening.

Last Friday quite a delegation from our town attended the reunion. All reported the reunion a success, but, unfortunately, it was disturbed by a gang of Texas Rangers filled with "a-dollar-sixty," or "skilias forty yards."

Judging from the number of battles fought that day, it would never be suspected that the war closed 40 years ago. After witnessing these battles it naturally makes all law abiding citizens ask the following questions. "Have we laws by which peace can be preserved?" "Can an officer of the law witness these disturbances without making arrests, and feel that he has been true to the oath he has taken?"

Cecil H. Sipes and wife, of Pittsburg, have been spending the past week among friends and relatives in this county. While it has been almost five months since Mr. Sipes wed Miss Lulu Faulds, one of Pittsburg's accomplished daughters, when he returned to his old home in Licking Creek township, last Thursday evening, about eighty of his old time chums and neighbors turned out and gave them such a reception as only a Fulton county band of Callithumpians know how to do. Everything passed off most pleasantly, and Cecil was glad, even in this way, to meet so many of his old friends.

Fall Announcement

DEAR FULTON COUNTY FRIENDS: We take this method of thanking you for your liberal patronage and of asking a continuance of the same. We also wish to introduce ourselves to those who have, on account of distance, not traded with us.

We feel confident that we can save you quite a bit, if you will give us a chance to sell you, at least, a part of your fall goods, and we will give you special prices.

Early in the summer when cotton was worth 64c. (now 11c), and before leather and wool made the great advance, we bought very extensively for fall which puts us in shape to sell at the lowest prices such merchandise as Blankets, Clothing, and Woolen Drygoods, Shoes, Boots, Hats, Etc.

Space will not allow us to go into details of the many things at so low prices. Will make mention of but a few below.

Ladies' Coats

We received this week an immense stack of ladies, misses, and children coats—long and short length. Batistes in red, blue, tan, light brown and black. Some of them samples at two-thirds price.

School Shoes Clothing

Have you tried our boys and girls' school shoes. All solid leather. Suits and Overcoats for children, boys and men.

Cord Pants

Reliable No. 272 Shippensburg Cords, guaranteed not to fade at $2.25. Will have men's Cords from $1 to $3 per pair.
